Description

Beautiful Pranburi Commercial land for sale on main road between Hua Hin and Pak Nam Pran beach area located on a corner with 2 paved roads. It is the best location on the whole highway located right on a corner that can be seen 500 meters away from either direction.

Land Size: 1 rai, 2 ngan, 36 sq. wah (Total land size: 2544 sq. meters) This is designated to be the new coastal highway for traveling and bicycle tours between Hua Hin and the Pak Nam Pram, Khao Kalok, and Sam Roi Yot beach areas. The road is being widened now and a bicycle lane being built for bike tours to and from the beach area. This area is getting ready to be developed quickly with many new homes and project developments. New property development is moving south from Hua Hin this way towards the beaches. A new development is going in right across the road from the property and more coming.

Pranburi commercial land for sale on Coastal Highway to beach

The total land size is 636 sq. wah and will have plenty of room for parking and ease of access from the road as it is situated on a corner with main road frontage and a side road running the full width of the property. City water, 3 phase electric and fiber optic internet are available as lines run right in front of the land and bordering all down the side.

For a business, a corner property is the most sought after due to convenience, accessibility, and visibility and this property has it all with at least a ½ kilometer visibility from any direction coming down the main road.
